Twelfth ECINEQ Conference
The Society for the Study of Economic Inequality
Helsinki, Finland, September 1-3, 2027

CALL FOR PAPERS

The ECINEQ Executive Committee is pleased to announce that the Twelfth Conference of the Society for the Study of Economic Inequality (ECINEQ) will be held in Helsinki, Finland, from September 1st to 3rd, 2027. The conference will be hosted by UNU-WIDER.

The conference provides an international forum for research on economic inequality and related fields. Researchers are welcome regardless of their disciplinary background, methodological approach, or institutional affiliation.

ECINEQ welcomes submissions of reasonably complete papers presenting theoretical or empirical analysis of inequality, poverty, redistribution, and related policy questions.

The keynote speakers will be:

Orazio Attanasio, Yale University
Steven Durlauf, The University of Chicago
Cecilia García-Peñalosa, Aix-Marseille School of Economics

The deadline for submission of papers is February 20, 2027. Authors will be notified by the end of April 2027 whether or not their papers have been accepted.

Limited financial aid will be available for students and researchers from institutions in low and lower-middle income countries. The Programme Committee will make final decisions based on the papers accepted and the total budget available for support.

Further information on submissions, conference fees, and financial assistance can be found on the conference webpage.
