RESEARCH ON ECONOMIC INEQUALITY,

Volume 31

Editors: Juan Gabriel Rodríguez and Sanghamitra Bandyopadhyay

The editors of Research on Economic Inequality invite researchers interested in distributional economics to submit manuscripts for Volume 31 of the series. We are particularly interested in the intergenerational transmission of inequality and poverty, education and inequality, and the distribution of wealth. We will also consider articles on other topics of interest-both theoretical and applied-to researchers in the distributional field.

The timetable for Volume 31 is as follows:

- Submission Deadline: April 30th, 2023;
- Reviews Completed: June 15th, 2023;
- Final Manuscripts Due: July 15th, 2023;
- Publication: Winter 2023.

Submission prior to deadline (April 30th) is encouraged.
