

Eleventh ECINEQ Conference
The Society for the Study of Economic Inequality
World Bank, Washington DC, July 9-11, 2025

CALL FOR PAPERS

The ECINEQ Executive Committee is pleased to announce that the Eleventh Conference of the Society for the Study of Economic Inequality (ECINEQ) will be held in Washington DC from July 9 to July 11, 2025. The conference will be co-hosted by the World Bank Group and George Washington University and will be held at the World Bank headquarters in central Washington.

The ECINEQ conference provides an international forum for all researchers interested in the analysis of economic inequality and related fields, bringing together a diversity of perspectives. ECINEQ welcomes submissions of papers with theoretical or empirical analyses of topics related to inequality, poverty, mobility, and redistribution, as well as related policy analyses.

Keynote speakers:

Daron Acemoglu, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Garance Genicot and Debraj Ray, Georgetown University and NYU

Nora Lustig, Presidential Address, Tulane University

Only reasonably complete papers should be submitted using the form at the following link: <https://editorialexpress.com/conference/EcineqWB2025/>. The deadline for submission of papers is February 15, 2025. Submitters will be notified by March 2025 whether their paper is accepted.

Limited financial aid will be available for doctoral students and researchers from institutions based in low-income countries. Decisions about support will be made by the Programme Committee.

More information about paper submissions, conference fees and financial aid can be found on the conference website.
